

Trainee Assessment

Transport deceased people

28532 Transport a deceased person in a healthcare facility (version 1, level 3, 5 credits)

Your name:

Your workplace:

Your date of birth:

NSN number (if you know it):

Declaration

- I was told about and understand the assessment requirements and appeals process.
- I have prepared my answers myself.
- Any evidence I have provided as my own, I produced myself.
- I understand that this assessment may be used for moderation and quality control purposes.
- I understand that when I achieve this unit standard my result will be registered with the New Zealand Qualifications Authority.

I confirm the above declaration: Yes No Date:

Assessment summary (completed by assessor)

Trainee's performance summary

Assessment tasks	Assessor's signature	Date achieved
Task 1: Procedures
Task 2: Transport deceased people

Unit standard results

I have assessed the trainee and confirm that the requirements have been met to demonstrate competency in:

Unit standard	Version	Level	Credits	✓
28532 Transport a deceased person in a healthcare facility	1	3	5	<input type="checkbox"/>

Assessor's name:

Assessor's number:

Signature:

Date:

Trainee information

Getting started

- Contact your assessor or workplace observer to talk about what you need to do.
- You may have or be asked for evidence or workplace documents which record what you have already done, at work or through training.
- For practical assessments and kōrero mātanga speak to your workplace supervisor and/or assessor when you are ready to get started.

As you do the tasks

- Answer all questions. Refer to real or simulated situations when answering questions.
- For knowledge assessment questions you can choose to write your answers or your assessor may record your verbal answers for you.
- Your assessor or observer will complete the observation form in this assessment when they observe your work. Sometimes they may ask you to do a specific task or ask a question about what you're doing.

When you finish

- Make sure you have completed any parts where the assessor/observer has said you need to do more work.
- If your assessor requires more information, add your extra information to the bottom of your original answer, or on a separate sheet of paper with your name on it, date it, and answer any questions the assessor has asked you.

Appeals

If you wish to appeal against the assessment result or process, talk to your assessor.

If you're still not satisfied, you can appeal to Careerforce by completing the assessment result appeal form. You can find this form online at www.careerforce.org.nz/contact/forms

Feedback

Careerforce regularly reviews our assessment and learning resources. As a user, we would appreciate feedback on how you found it. Feedback can be provided to Careerforce via:

- our online feedback form at www.careerforce.org.nz/contact/resource-assessment-feedback
- email to info@careerforce.org.nz

Task 1: Procedures

In this task you must show your understanding of what you need to do when transporting a deceased person, including your organisation's procedures and cultural consideration.

Q1 What is the procedure in your organisation for transporting a deceased person?

Make sure your answer includes any requirements about safety, reporting and hand-over procedures, and any documentation that is required.

Q2 How do cultural beliefs and practices about death impact on your work?

You need to explain the beliefs and practices of Māori, and two other cultural groups.

Culture	How cultural beliefs and practices impact on my work
1 Māori
2
3

Task 1: Assessor's feedback to trainee

When the assessor agrees that you have completed this task successfully, they will sign it off on the assessment summary page at the front of this assessment.

Task 2: Transport deceased people

For this practical assessment, you need to provide details of two occasions when you transported a deceased person.

Complete all written tasks in this assessment before asking your observer to complete the observation form to confirm that the details you have provided are correct and that you completed the transports appropriately.

The observer is likely to be your manager, supervisor or team leader. This must be a person who has observed your work over a period of time and can confirm that you complete the tasks to the standard required. Your assessor may contact your observer to discuss their comments.

Read the observation form to make sure you know how your performance will be assessed.

Date of Transport One:
Where did you move the deceased person from?
Where did you take them?
Describe any special requirements you had to meet because of their culture.	For example, a member of the person's family had to accompany me at all times.

Date of Transport Two:

Where did you move the deceased person from?

Where did you take them?

Describe any special requirements you had to meet because of their culture.

For example, a member of the person's family had to accompany me at all times.

Observation

Note to observer:

You have been asked to complete this observation as the supervisor/manager of the trainee. You must have observed the trainee working over a period of time.

The trainee has provided details of two occasions when they have transported a deceased person as part of their role.

You need to be confident that the information they have provided is correct and that trainee consistently transports deceased people according to the standards listed in the checklist below.

If you agree that the trainee meets these standards please tick the boxes below. If you do not agree please discuss the requirements with the trainee. Please comment on the trainee's performance. The assessor may wish to contact you to discuss this observation.

The trainee must transport at least two deceased people and consistently meet the standards below.

The observer/assessor may also use this column to record comments.

Assessor/observer to complete

US 28532 ER 3.1, 3.2

Before, during and after moving the person the trainee must make sure they have:

- Followed the organisation's policies and procedures at all times.
- Completed the transports in a way that maintains respect for the deceased people and their culture.

Please add any further comments you wish to make.

If you are an observer, please give your details as the assessor may wish to contact you.

Name:		Designation:
Signature:		Date:
Contact details (phone/email):

Task 2: Assessor's feedback to trainee

When the assessor agrees that you have completed this task successfully, they will sign it off on the assessment summary page at the front of this assessment.